REPORT

GROUP DISCUSSION ON PROPERTY RIGHTS

An inter-class group discussion was held on 24-08-2019 on "Property Rights" to explore the various facets of property rights and their legal framework. The students discussed the legal foundation of property rights including the Constitutional provisions and case laws that govern property ownership, transfer and inheritance. The discussion covered different types of property rights, including ownership, leasehold and tenancy.

The students also deliberated on the challenges faced by women in acquiring and inheriting property and the legal reforms aimed at addressing gender disparities. The discussion included various government initiatives aimed at streamlining property transactions, ensuring transparency and protecting the rights of property owners.

The group discussion provided a comprehensive overview of property rights in India, covering legal aspects and gender dynamics. Participants gained insights into the complexities of property-related issues and the need for a balanced legal framework.

Sub: Letter of Appreciation

Dear Sir,

Thank you very much for accepting our invitation over the phone to conduct a special session on "Land Laws: An Overview" on 22-02-2020 in the Auditorium from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Participants gained insights into the legal frameworks governing land use and zoning. This special session provided a valuable platform for law students to deepen their understanding of the legal intricacies surrounding land transactions, ownership and disputes.

We once again thank you,

Thanking you,

Dr. M.S. Kichade

To,
Advocate Vinita Almeida,
Bombay High Court.

Sub: Letter of Appreciation

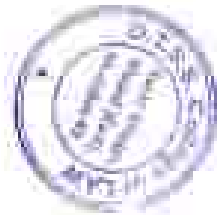

Dear Madam,

Thank you very much for accepting our invitation over the phone to conduct a special session on "Jurisprudence" on 08-02-2020 in the Auditorium from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The session aimed to delve into the theoretical foundations, historical evolution and key concepts of jurisprudence, providing students with a profound understanding of legal philosophy.

We once again thank you.

Thanking you,

Report –

Introductory session on Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension [DLLE] by Prof. Shraddha Chavan

Date: December 07, 2021 (Tuesday)

The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension [DLLE] has been recognized as a statutory Department of the University of Mumbai since 1994 to provide a meaningful and sustained rapport between the Universities and the community.

The students of D.T.S.S. COLLEGE OF LAW were invited to be part of an introductory session by Prof. Shraddha Chavan and Shwari Neg to introduce the DLLE Programme and share some more information about the same.

A heartwarming response by 40 odd students who attended the session welcomingly. The event concluded with vote of thanks, was given by Prof. Shwari Neg and the event concluded on a hope to invite participation from the students.

To,
Advocate Thomas,
MUMBAI.

Sub: Letter of Appreciation

We express our sincere appreciation for the exceptional session you conducted for our Law students on "Relevance of Facts". Your insights, expertise and engaging presentation style greatly enriched the learning experience for our students. The interactive nature of the session fostered a dynamic learning environment and we are confident that the knowledge gained will prove invaluable to their academic and professional pursuits. We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to work with you again in the future.

With regards,

Guest Lecture on the Practical Aspects of the Various Provisions of the procedural codes in Law by Prof. Vanita Agarwal.

(Date: February 09, 2022 (Wednesday))

On account of a recommendation communicated by Prof. Vanita Agarwal, a student of our T.Y.LL.B. & SYLL.B Class, we invited her to deliver a guest lecture on the topic Practical Aspects of Various Provisions of the procedural codes and giving special information upon the procedure followed after filing of the suit till the adjudication of the suit by the Courts of Law and other associated aspects.

We were rewarded with a humbling class of 50 odd students and the lecture was well received by all.

Prof. Vanita, in her lecture, covered the following topics:

1. Explained the drafting related to a Pleat and its functions.
2. Responded to queries related to procedural codes.

In all, it was a successful attempt at motivating the students to engage in forms of public speaking and honing their oratory skills on their path to becoming astounding Lawyers.
