NOTICE

PARTICIPATION IN NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL SEMINARS/CONFERENCES & GUEST SESSIONS

All the students are hereby informed that as part of our continuous assessment and practical training initiatives, ensuring comprehensive learning experience, each student in every semester is required to attend:

1. Two National Seminars/Conferences: Any National Seminar/Conference (particularly but not limited to) organized by the University of Mumbai covering a range of Law related topics either in online mode/offline mode/hybrid mode.
2. Two International Seminars/Conferences: Any International Seminar/Conference (particularly but not limited to) organized by the University of Mumbai covering a range of Law related topics either in online mode/offline mode/hybrid mode.
3. Seven Guest Sessions: Sessions organized by D.T.S.S. College of Law only.

The copy of the certificates/e-certificates of National and International Seminars/Conferences must be attached in your Practical Training File for assessment purposes. These conferences provide valuable opportunities for learning, networking, and professional development, which are integral to your academic journey. For each missed conference, the student must attend two extra guest sessions as a compulsory measure. In case of Guest Sessions, attach a copy of 01 (one) page Report (Handwritten/Typed) in your Practical Training File.

Attendance at these events is crucial for your holistic development and will contribute significantly to your academic and professional growth. Moreover, your participation will be considered as part of your continuous assessment, reflecting your commitment to ongoing learning and engagement with the subject matter.
